Dear parents and guardians,

Making the Most of HKDSE Preparation Break

Please pay attention to the following items:

Making the Most of HKDSE Preparation Break

Form 6 students will begin their HKDSE preparation break on 6th March (Thursday), during which there will be no classes to allow students to focus on their revision. Teachers in various subjects have also prepared group study sessions, tutorial classes, training for the English Language (Paper 4) oral examination, and post-mock assessments.

Additionally, students are welcome to return to school on designated school days to study in the library and meet with teachers for individual guidance. Last year's graduating class made great use of their preparation break, achieving ideal results, with over 60% of students gaining admissions through the Joint University Programmes Admissions System (JUPAS). Beyond academic results, students benefited from encouragement from their peers and teachers, which significantly helped them overcome difficulties and foster personal growth for the future.

We encourage parents to motivate their children to engage with their teachers during this preparation break and work together towards success.

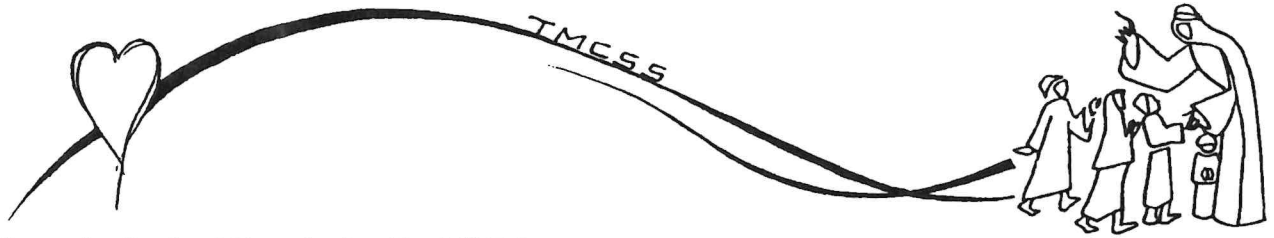

Should you have any further questions, please contact the class teachers.

Yours faithfully,

(Wong Kit)
