

Tuen Mun Catholic Secondary School
2024-2025 School Circular Issue No. 19
(Suitable for F.1 students)

17th March, 2025

Dear parents and guardians,

Primary Dental Co-care Pilot Scheme for Adolescents (PDCC), Parent Webinar: Mastering Digital Skills – Keeping Pace with Your Child’s Learning Journey and Switching to Summer School Uniform

Please pay attention to the following items:

1. Primary Dental Co-care Pilot Scheme for Adolescents (PDCC)

The Department of Health will launch the Primary Dental Co-care Pilot Scheme for Adolescents (PDCC) on 20th March, 2025. Eligible youths must be aged between 13 and 17, hold a valid Hong Kong identity card, and be registered for the eHealth system. Qualifying youths can receive subsidized dental services once per calendar year, with the government providing a subsidy of HK$200 to dentists for each service. Participants are required to pay the co-payment amount determined by their chosen dentist for their participation in the pilot scheme. The recommended co-payment by the government for each subsidized service is HK$200.

The subsidized dental services covered under the pilot scheme include:

- Oral examinations;
- Oral health risk assessments;
- Teeth cleaning;
- Personalized oral care recommendations;
- Fluoride treatments based on the results of the oral health risk assessment; and
- Oral examination result reports.

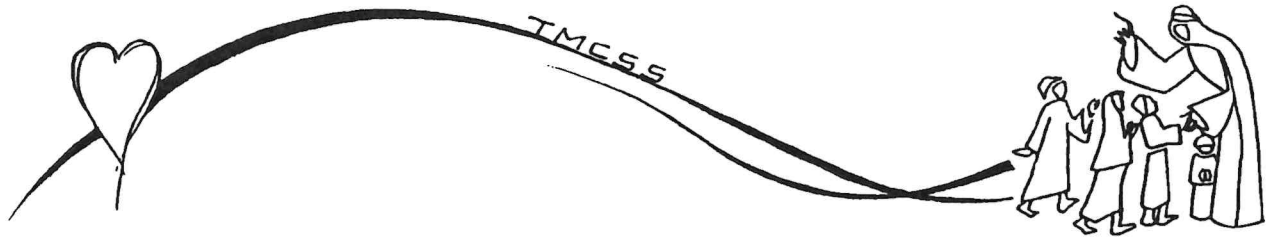

If interested in participating in the pilot scheme, please visit the webpage:

3. Switching to Summer School Uniform

Starting from 26th March, students may begin to transition to summer school uniforms, depending on weather changes. During the transitional period, students are required to bring their PE (Physical Education) uniforms to school for classes and change during PE lessons. Uniform requirements can be found on pages eight and nine of the Student Handbook. After the Easter holidays, all students will switch to summer school uniforms fully.

Yours faithfully,

(Wong Kit)
